This boutique hotel in Phuket is situated on a headland overlooking the Andaman Sea and the white sand beach of Kata Noi. Villa Royale is a personal creation of the renowned artist and architect Mom Luang Tridosyuth Devakul better known as Mom Tri, a descendant of King Rama IV. Formerly a summer house, it was opened to the public ten years ago to provide guests with a truly royal experience.

Landscaped into rocks overlooking the sea is a lovely saltwater swimming pool, while there are two freshwater pools. A private path from the hotel leads to the sugar-white sand beach and the turquoise water of Kata Noi.

On the Rock is one of the oldest established restaurants in Phuket and is rightly regarded as an institution on the island – a place where families, lovers and friends can count on eating spanking-fresh seafood in a great setting.

As the name suggests, the restaurant is at the end of a rocky promontory in the grounds of Marina Phuket Resort, which feted its 30th anniversary in 2015. This is Greg's favourite restaurant.

Koh Yao Yai: 5* Santhiya

Overlooking the ocean and backed by dense foliage, the Santhiya Koh Yao Yai Resort and Spa evokes a real sense of exclusivity, with the only traffic coming from the boats of the nearby pier. Take trips to small isolated islands, swim, snorkel and laze on sun-drenched beaches as you find yourself relaxing and unwinding in this little slice of paradise. Yet this beautiful hotel has more to offer than its idyllic island location.

Whilst here we will take an island tour, stroll along the beach for a traditional Seafood Thai dinner and grab a massage or two for a very reasonable $ 15.
